DAY 2

7am - Breakfast is served.

8am – Today's activities begin by walking through the trails of our reserve surrounded by 300+ year old trees while your guide explains the history and biology of the flora and fauna by sight and sound before arriving at our first platform located 15 meters high in the crown of an old fig tree, accessed by a suspension bridge. Continue your walk into the Taricaya Reserve towards the Canopy platform, the highest tree platform in South America. Located 45 meters high up in the crown of an ancient Kapok tree and connected by a 90-meter long suspension bridge, not for the faint hearted. Catch a glimpse of flying Macaws, parrots or Toucans; the views from this platform are truly unforgettable! (Aprox. 2 hours).

Continue into the reserve until we reach the Taricaya Rescue Center where you will encounter many different rescued animals including Jaguars, pumas, spectacled bears, macaws, spider monkeys, howler monkeys, jaguarondi, bush dog, tapir, turtles and much more. (Aprox 2hours)

PLEASE BE AWARE THIS IS A RESCUE CENTRE NOT A ZOO!!!! (we cannot stress this enough)

- These animals are in the process of rehabilitation before being released back into the wild, it is impossible to list the animals that will be here upon your arrival, we do not support or condone animals in captivity on this land for purposes of tourist attractions! If you're coming to pet animals this is not for you, your family or group.
- Taricaya has single handedly repopulated these parts of the jungle with the almost extinct spider monkeys in this area, never done before by any organization in PERU!

1pm - Lunch is served.

2pm - Relax in the hammock area, enjoy a cocktail from the Tunche bar or have a rest in the comfort of your private bungalow.

3:30pm - Venture off on a jungle hike to the Agroforestry farm and visit the reforestation projects, explore the Mahogany workshop and the artificial beaches of the Taricaya turtle project (between July, August and September you will see the flags pointing out the turtle nests in the sand, relocated to be kept safe from poachers until hatched and released in November) (1.5 hours).

5pm - Return to the Lodge for a rest or a cocktail in the bar.

6:30pm – Prepare yourself for the caiman search along the river's edge under the moonlight. We will search for white caiman, black caiman and spectacle caiman as they lay along the river banks at night. On an open night you will enjoy the amazing sky filled with stars from all angels.

8pm - Dinner is served

10:30pm - Generator is turned off for the night, light

DAY 3

4:30am – An early Wake before the sunrise, a cup of coffee and a big breakfast before heading upriver to the entrance of the Tambopata National Reserve.

Start your 3 km trek to Lake Sandoval. Upon the way enjoy the diverse ecosystem spotting wildlife on the way. *Common sightings include anacondas , armadillos, porcupines and various species of birds and primates.

Arrive to the mouth of the lake and hop on a rowboat, your guide will paddle your group around the pristine mirror like lake to enjoy the beautiful scenery with the opportunity to encounter the impressive large black caiman. Continue on your search for the family of the endangered giant river otter that calls this lake home (Aprox 5 hours)

10 am - Take your snack by the water's edge.

11 am - After enjoying the amazing nature of the lake we leave we return via the 3km hike back to our motorboat and return to the lodge for lunch and a well-deserved rest.

1pm - Lunch is served.

2pm – A good rest before the next activity.

4pm - A favorite of all tourists this activity gives you the chance to separate yourself from the group and enjoy a self-toured float down the River on an inflatable boat with guides close on hand but far enough to let you soak in the sunset in silence. Of course the opportunity to see turtles, monkeys, herons and other birds that are along the river side may distract you for awhile with a beautiful backdrop of the sunset over the river, you can even enjoy a refreshing swim in the river. (Aprox 1.5 hours)

7pm - Choose to meet your guide/group in the Main hall to see a video of the Taricaya Ecological Reserve and the different projects that have been going on over the years.

8pm - End your night with a delicious regional dinner.

10:30pm - Generator is turned off for the night, lights out.

DAY 4

7am - Breakfast.

9am - Travel upriver for 15 minutes to visit a small island, home to a local native family of the Ese-Eja tribe. Listen as they swap between their native language and Spanish as your guide translates their stories, beliefs and history. Learn about their ancestral customs and arrival in Peru. (Aprox 1hour)

10am - Learn the art of bow and arrow making, their weapon of choice and participate in making your own bow and arrow using natural materials from the rainforest from Enrique the chief of the family. (Aprox 1.5h)

11:30am - Finally, you can have a one on one talk with Enrique and his wife (your guide will translate). Enjoy their hand-crafts and native jewelry on display, an important economic activity Esa Eja women maintain till today.

12:00h. Return to the Lodge for a rest.

1pm - Lunch is served.

2pm – Relax in a hammock have a game of football have a cold drink in the bar or take it easy in your bungalow for a relaxing afternoon

Fill your afternoon with a self-guided tour around the lodge facilities to photocatch wildlife or pick one of our additional activities (ask about availability and cost)

8pm – Dinner is served.

10:30pm - Generator is turned off for the night, lights out.

DAY 5

7am - Check out from your bungalow. (Leave your bags packed and ready for the porters to be collected and carried to the boat and PLEASE don't forget anything in your room)

7:30am - Breakfast is served

The boat is ready to leave at 8:30am.

8:30am - Say goodbye to the jungle as we head back up river until we reach our port at the office.

Pick up any stored luggage or repack.

Transfer out and drop off to the airport, bus or hotel depending on your flight schedule, late departures are welcome to stay in our lounge area to reconnect with the world via free Wifi or ask about the city tour options (Taxis and tours are have an extra cost).

PLEASE BE AWARE:

- This is a tentative itinerary. Order of activities may vary without notice depending on weather or flight delays.
- Established schedules can be modified in coordination with the guide but in agreement with all guests.
- In the case you do not want, or are not able to participate on an excursion, you may opt to stay at the lodge.
